In 1996, I was sent down for eleven and a half years for bank robbery. Because of my strong beliefs, I've been subject to very harsh repression – kept in solitary, daily cell raids, suppression and censorship of mail, no access to education. In 2007, I was finally been moved out of solitary and was able to participate in education and other activities. I have applied for parole on a number of occasions since then but has always been turned down. Since 8. July 2013 I was under Preventive Detention, based on a Nazi-law from 1933 which allows the state to keep someone behind the bars, after he/she has finished the sentence, maybe for the rest of her/his life. I hope that I get released in summer 2023 at the latest.

Im a long-term anarchist prisoner, a victim of the infamous Spanish FIES isolation and torture system. To save my own sanity and life, I escaped from prison and went on the run in Germany with a fellow escapee from the FIES system, Gabriel Pombo da Silva. We were arrested in June 2004 after trying to evade a police control on the road. Because we were anarchist and carrying guns, the German state chose to portray us as terrorists planning a series of bank robberies. I was sentenced to 14 years in prison.

I was living and working in Greece when arrested during the December '08 riots. I was convicted of charges that I did not find out the details of till later, in a court that I could not understand a word that was being said, defended by an Official Solicitor with a translator that told me to pretend to testify as the translator knew what to say. I was incarcerated in Larissa prison and fellow prisoners only began to spread the details of my case widely for the first time in December 2011. That's how I became known as 'the forgotten prisoner of the December 2008 rebellion'.

After an appeal hearing on June 11th, 2012, my prison term was reduced to 8.5 years. Since he has already completed 2/5 of his sentence, and was extradited to Poland from his Greek prison cell, where he is currently incarcerated.

I was arrested in 1979 when Larry Giddings and I attempted to free fellow revolutionary Artie Ray Dufur. We successfully freed Artie, but got arrested after an exchange of fire with police as we were fleeing the scene. Larry and me were charged with auto theft and aiding and abetting the escape, for which I received an 80 year federal prison sentence. In 1983 I attempted to escape prison and was given another 15 years in prison. I spent seven and an half years in lockdown at the infamous maximum security Marion prison for my escape attempt. During my time in Marion I helped social prisoners pursue their education, both politically and academically. In one case I helped prisoner Ernesto Santiago receive his GED. I continue to stay active politically, helping edit and write 4Struggle Magazine, organizing the yearly Running Down the Walls 5K for political prisoners, and serving on the ABCF Prisoner Committee.

Arrested in 1992 on charges of “membership to an illegal organization”, I was sentenced to life imprisonment in connection with the Article 146/1 of Turkish Penal Code. The reason for the life sentence was the murder of an organization member upon the central decision of the organization due to his disobedience to organizational discipline. Later the sentence was changed to 30 years in prison.

I was detained with 5 more comrades on December 4th, 2010 during a wide “anti-terrorist” operation. Accused of membership in the Conspiracy of Cells of Fire. For the first time the police set up a case about participation in a “terrorist group” without naming the group and about “terrorist” action without considering it necessary for any illegal action to have been committed. My case is now in the court.

I was then extradited to Italy and have been in the transit section of Rebibbia prison in Rome since July 5, “waiting until the dogs of the administration or the Department of Penitentiary Administration decide in which section to put me,”. Eventually I was moved on to a wing in the same prison.

I am a Latino vegan anarchist imprisoned in Mexico. I was arrested in 2009 for sabotage and allegedly setting fire to a bank ATM. Much of the evidence in the trial focused on me being an anarchist, rather than anything substantive. I was convicted by the Mexican mainstream media before ever setting foot in a courtroom. Although paying a fine to get out was a possible option in this case, I did not have the means and my partner flatly refused to pay any amount. Either it was against my partner's political principles, or he simply couldn't come up with it. The translation of what exactly occurred is a bit murky. I struggled with feeling isolated and lonesome. I feel like the walls are closing in on me and desperately would like to hear from people.

In 2010, I tried to assassinate the governor of Missouri. In June of 2013, I was convicted and sentenced to a dozen years on each of three counts – assault and two armed criminal action charges – and seven years on a second count of assault. All sentences will run concurrently.

Despite the attempts to discredit me in the media, members of DABC have known Casey as an active and passionate anarchist and revolutionary, and although I did indeed battle with mental health issues, I was nonetheless committed to revolutionary struggle and social justice.

In March 2008, I was arrested by federal authorities for charges related to two acts of property destruction that occurred in 1999 and 2000 – damaging an office connected to GMO (Genetically Modified Organism) research, and destroying a piece of logging equipment. No one was injured in either act. I faced a life sentence before accepting a plea bargain in September 2008.

I was sentenced on February 5, 2009 in federal court in Lansing, Michigan. I received almost 22 years – the longest sentence of any Green Scare prisoner. An appeal for a reduction in my sentence was denied in 2010.

I am a 23 year old Australian who had the courage to stand up against 16 Nazis on a night out in Sofia, Bulgaria. I witnessed the fascists chasing and attacking two young Roma boys. I ran to the boys' aid, I did my best to keep the Nazis at bay by waving a knife at them but they attacked me.

I was left with nowhere to run and had no choice but to defend myself. Andrey Monov, one of the Nazis, was stabbed and killed and another, Antoan Zahariev was injured. The Roma boys ran away.

I have since been tried and sentenced for murder and attempted murder. I have been sentenced to 20 years imprisonment and have been fined 375,000 Australian dollars.
