How did you learn about the HOARDD?

Why are you interested in joining the HOARDD?

What skills and abilities do you have that could be useful as a member of the HOARDD?

Upon signing this form and delivering it to your nearest HOARDD member you become a “hopeful”. This means you will undergo a process of vetting. Other members of the HOARDD will make contact and arrange to interview you. Interviews may happen over the phone, video chat, or in person. An interview will never be conducted through text. Members will need to get to know you, and you will need to get to know them. You will need to decide if the HOARDD will be a good fit for you. Likewise, the members of the HOARDD will decide if you are a good fit for them.

As a hopeful you are encouraged to take part in HOARDD projects and actions, and attend monthly meetings. Doing so will show initiative, and that you are dedicated and committed enough to show up for other members when they need you. The HOARDD is like a family, and by being granted membership you become part of our family. We have to know that we can trust and depend on you.

To become a member you must be voted in by the current members, if you are denied membership you will not be barred from requesting membership at a later time, and you will still be welcome to participate in HOARDD projects and actions.

By signing this form you are acknowledging that the information you have provided is completely factual to the best of your knowledge, that you agree with and are committed to the mission, vision, values, and overall goals of the HOARDD, and that you will adhere to the code of conduct and ethics as outlined in the HOARDD charter.
