

Sizewell Camp 2012

Skill Share, Networking and Protest
Power for the People-Not Profits for the Few

Friday 20th - Sunday 22nd April

Spend a sunny weekend camping on the beach at Sizewell and learning about the plans for the new power station. Come and show your opposition to nuclear power and your support for sustainable energy solutions. The weekend includes a protest at the nuclear power station entrance, workshops and skill shares, woodland and beach walks, vegan food and networking. Now is the time to take action against new build – come join us to say

‘Nuclear power – No thanks!’

The Camp

Friday 20th – Sunday 22nd April 6pm onwards

Demonstration

Saturday 21st, 12noon at the entrance to Sizewell A and B

A demonstration outside the gates of Sizewell opposing nuclear power and supporting the alternatives.

Workshops and Walks

Saturday and Sunday, at the Camp

A number of workshops including basic nuclear physics, nuclear waste storage, alternative energy supplies and walks along the beach and into the woods EdF intend to destroy.

Chernobyl Remembrance- 26years later

Sunday 22nd 1pm at the Camp

Getting There

Sizewell is on the Suffolk Coast about 8 miles from the A12 about 100 miles from Central London. The nearest train station is Saxmundham which is 7 miles from Sizewell. (Contact us as we may be able to provide transport from the station.)

The postcode for the power station is IP16 4UE if you want to look it up on the Internet.

About The Camp

We want as many people as possible to feel comfortable at the camp so please no heavy drinking or loud music. The camp will not be run for you but by you so please be prepared to help out with the running of the camp.

Please let us know (contact details below) if you are thinking of coming so we have an idea of numbers.

Email: camp@sizewellcamp.org.uk

Web: <http://sizewellcamp.org.uk>

Phone: 07894467356

The event is organised by people from the
Stop Nuclear Power Network

